Dear Harold:

Quite by accident last Thursday, I was out of my office and happened to listen to the Jim Eason Show. I was very pleased to learn that you are proceeding with your plans to publish "Whitewash Four".

Enclosed please find a personal check to help defray some of your printing costs, and for which I expect a commitment of one autographed copy.

I would be curious as to whether you have developed any more information either from the Oakland party you put me in contact with, or made any use of the information from the source I forwarded to you. I would be curious in knowing whether or not you ever published the book you spoke about regarding Martin Luther King. It is reassuring to learn that your enthusiasm in this matter continues, and that you do not become discouraged.

I certainly hope that if and when you are out on the West Coast again, we can get together.

Kindest personal regards to Lillian, as well as you,

Jack

Dear Harold,

*As you can see this was written many months ago and I just never got it out to you.
Since then I rec'd your most recent circular and as (over)*

indicated would like two of the most recent books.

Hope all is well with you.

Don't give up.

And, let me know if you are ever in the Bay Area.

Best for the new year.
